PARRISH CONSTRUCTION GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW HIRES

Perry & Roswell, GA – August 1, 2012 — Parrish Construction Group is pleased to announce the strategic hires of Wilkes Evans, Ted Stone, Kelley Smith, Lindsay Roberts and VancePerkins to the Team.

Wilkes Evans, Construction Manager in Perry

Wilkes brings an extensive and varied background of construction experience including preconstruction, project management and business development skills to Parrish. As Construction Manager, his responsibilities will include client relationship management, project execution and strategic development with an emphasis on the academic markets.

Evans is a graduate of Georgia Southern University with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management and a Masters of Business Administration. He is an active member of Martha Bowman United Methodist Church in Macon, Georgia and participates in the Joshua's Men Christian leadership group as well as the United Methodist Men through Fishers of Men. Evans previously served in the Georgia Southern Construction Management Associates Council Board as the Warner Robins Vice Chair.

Ted Stone, Client Relations Consultant in Perry

Ted Stone is the most recent addition to the Client Relations team.

Stone is a 33-year veteran of the Jones County School Board, 24 years of which he served as Chairman. He is recognized for his leadership and personal commitment to the education of children and the betterment of his community. With his focus on client relations, Stone will use his significant organizational and leadership talents, keen sense of vision and sensitivity to the needs of the community to further develop and serve our clients within the academic market where Parrish has developed expertise.

Stone is a retiree from Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company where he was a salesman for over 42 years. He is a past board member and past president of Georgia School Board Association. Stone also served on the boards of Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education, and the Children and Youth Coordinating Council for Juvenile Justice. He is a current Board Member of Vision for Excellence in Education.

Kelley Smith, Superintendent in Perry

Kelley Smith is a highly regarded senior level construction professional with expertise in overseeing government, residential and commercial building projects. He has a reputation for delivering projects on time and under budget. Smith is proficient in assembling high performance teams and works with owners, design teams, construction teams and consultants to ensure a smooth project maintaining cost and schedule control objectives.

Smith is a graduate of University of Alabama at Birmingham with a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. He is also a Veteran of the United States Navy.

Lindsay Roberts and Vance Perkins, Assistant Project Management in Perry

Lindsay Roberts brings over 12 years of experience in project coordination, project estimating and accounting within the construction industry. She is a native of Central Georgia and is currently attending Macon State College pursuing a Bachelors Degree in Accounting.

Vance Perkins has over 6 years of experience in project coordination, bidding and contracting. Perkins has a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management from Georgia Southern University and is an active volunteer with Christmas in April, the Monroe Recycling Center, the Macon Food Bank, Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Roberts and Perkins work with our established Project Mangers in planning, management, direction, project completion and closeout, client satisfaction and financial outcome of projects.

Dave Cyr, President of Parrish Construction Group states, “Parrish is excited about expanding our team to provide additional resources and further assist our clients in successfully meeting their facility planning and construction needs.”
